

SOCIETY LAST WEEK. ROUNDS OF PLEASURE FOR OUR

FOLKS OF FASHION.

RECEPTIONS, TEAS, AND GERMANS.

Here-Several Events of Interest Arranged for Thanksgiving-Day-

Many Notes of Personal Interest.

An elegant Thanksgiving german is to be given on Thanksgiving evening in honor of the visitors to the city on that occasion. The young ladies who have been arranging for the dance are Misses Mary Hill, Lily Hill, Emsie Pegram, Evelyn Gordon, and Anne Lee. Among those who will be chaperones, are Mrs. Fitzhugh H. Lee and Mrs. John B. Purcell. The Masonic Temple will be the scene of the entertainment. The students from the University invited to be present at the german are Messrs. Alpheus Beall, Robert Ballantine, V. Stuart Bowe, P. L. Cocke, Gordon Buck, J. L. U. Barney, W. Douglass Gordon, S. S. Garnett, J. H. Hill, Douglass McCormick, L. B. McPheeters, C. F. McIntosh, E. R. W. McCabe, Wilson Malloy, John Lorin. Nottingham, E. H. H. Old, L. J. Owen, R. L. Parrish, Norborne Robinson, Jr., C. C. Renslaw, Harry Heath, Robert Tunstall, C. S. Venable, Jr., R. B. Wiltlams, Gordon Wilson, J. M. B. West, W. L. Cochran, T. C. L. Wash, William Wertemlake, R. M. Ester, Jr., H. H. Swift, A. B. Rhett, T. A. Asserson, Eugene Damo, O'Brien, O'Reiliy, Nor-nent Baker, Walter Cabell, Jimmie nent Baker, Walter Cabell, Jimmie Russell, Hugh Nelson, Dan Peters, Stephen Ellerson, Fletcher, Brank, Eugene Vose, Frank Abbott, Brutus Clay, Willie Kean, Louis Hankel, Foot Brad Burwell, Dr. Harrison, Relley, Mr. George Bryan, Jordan, Nat. Barns-well, Pat. Smith, Henry Mayo, George Wertenbaker. The team of the North Carolina University is also to be invited to the ger-man, and aside from this, it is rumored that a number of Virginia Military In-stitute men, if the fates are kind, will put in an appearance Thanksgiving eve-

Last week was a gala one. Nearly every lay witnessed some elegant entertain-ment. Mrs. Howard Hoge was at home to her friends on Monday afternoon. Her handsome house was beautifully deco-rated for the occasion with jars of Ameri-can Beauty roses in the front rooms and in the dining-room with pink chrysanthems and pink shaded lamps. The mantels were bunked in ferns, mingled with pink candelabra. Mrs. Hoge's friends assisting her in receiving were Misses Eleanor Bosher, flowered taffeta; Marian Robins, black silk; Ella Jackson, white organdy, over biue taffeta, with blue satin trimmings; Judith Deane, white organdy with trimmings of moire velour; Rachel Cook, black satin; Mrs. Bentley, black silk, and Mrs. Allison Hodges, white cade: Mrs. Adolph Blair served ch. Among those who enjoyed her pitality were Mrs. Parker Dashiell. E. C. Minor, Mrs. William Dashiell. Mrs. Austin Brockenbrough, Ars. Wil-tiam Taliaferro, Mrs. William Oppen-almer, Mrs. Charles Todd, Mrs. J. A. White: Mrs. Donnan, of Petersburg: Mrs. Purcell, and Misses Mabel Todd, Haille

Purceil, and Misses Mabel Todd, Hallle Cooke, Marie Moseley, Lizzie Weddell, Lily Logan, Mary Rogers, Mary Lyons Msyo, Annie Wise Mayo, Delia Tompkins, Robbie Minor: Smith, of Norfolk; Lily Wilson, Daisy Wilson, Mattie Purceil, and Louise Waldour, of Honover.

Miss Annie Lee on Thursday afternoon gave a highly enjoyable tea at her home. It cast Franklin street. The nonorce of the occasion was Miss Dorothea Lee, a Bleec of General Fitzbugh Lee, who is spending the winter in Richmond. The Misses Lee were charming hostesses and the chartainment altogether picasant.

The ladies receiving were Miss Anne Mason Lee, blue silk, blue ribbon, and violets; Miss Elizabeth Winston Lee, white silk and white chrysanthemums; Miss Letitia McMullen, ye silk and yellow chrysanthemums; Mrs. Jenry Lee, black brocade. The tea-table was decorated with chrysanthemums, ferns, and silver candelabra. A mass of ferns and yellow chrysanthemums formed the cen-treplece, while the candelabra were placed at each end of the table, with festoonings These the Feature of Social Life of smilax and ferns. Among the guests present were Misses Nolting, Ella Cocke, Kathleen Anderson, Rebe Glasgow, Maud Miller, Elizabeth Weddell, Miriam Robins, Caroline Martin, Sue Skipwith, Anne Tennant, Florence Talbott, Brander, Marian Meade, Lidie Lizzie Katherine Fontaine Meade, Katherine Fontaine, Evie Blankenship, Ellen Lee, Ann Lee, and the Misses Harrison, and Dr. George Ben Johnson, Messrs. John Rutherfoord, Peiham Blackford, Alexan der Weddell, Randolph Holaday, Fred. Nolting, W. O. Nolting, William C. No-land, B. P. Cardoza, C. P. Cardwell, Allan Talbott, Carnault, Fitzhugh H. Lee, William Lightfoot, Ludwell Har-rison, John Mason Lee, W. F. Lee, Joseph Johnston, John F. McMullen, John F. McMullen, Jr., Palmer Gray, Granville McMulien, Jr., Palmer Gray, Granville Gray, and Drs. Charles Robins, Clifford Miller, Robert F. Williams, Mann, and punch bowl. Miss Coralie Johnston poured out the tea, and a number of lovely young ladies assisted in serving the guests These were Misses Annabel Jenkins, Susie Weilford, Harriet Field Lathrop, E. Jennings, Rosa Snodgrass, and Julia

Mrs. James Patton gave a euchre party, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all of her guests. At one table were Mrs. Pow-hatan Clarke, of Baltimore; Mrs. Robert Shaw (second); Mrs. Sprague and Mrs. Wallace, of New Orleans; Mrs. Charles Lathrop, Mrs. Alfred Gray, and Mrs. Thomas H. Leary. The other players were Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Miss Lane Kilby, of Norfolk; Mrs. William Royall, Mrs. Adeiph Osterioh, Mrs. Moncure Perkins, Mrs. Thomas Boiling, and Mrs. Patton

The luncheon given by Miss Bruce Willians, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson and Mr. Anthony Hope Hawkins, began the gayeties on Tuesday. A singularly dainty and elegant luncheon was served, and several hours passed very delightfully to Miss Williams's guests. The ladies present were Mrs. Gibson, Miss Clien Lee, Miss Nene Myers, Miss Anne Tennant, and Miss Annie Leigh Camm, besides Messrs, Gibson, Anthony Hope Hawkins, Henry Baskerville, Frank Da-venport, W. Brydon Tennant, and Legh R. Page.

Miss Williams and her guests went di-rectly from the luncheon to the tea given by Mrs. Thomas Bolling, which was an entertainment perfect in every respect. The decorations were in white and green, with groups of palms and chrysanthe-mums interspersed with red lamps and candelabra. Pink tints appeared in all the table decorations. Miss Kate Harris served the chocolate, while the salad bowl was presided over by Miss Sue Skipwith Miss Anne Tennant assisted at the teatable with Miss Bessie Pace, Mrs. Moses D. Hoge, Jr., and Mrs. Charies Bolling. Mrs. Thomas Bolling wore a beautiful gown of pink satin, with trimmings of pearls and lace. The with her were Mrs. liam Royall, Mrs. Moncure Per kins, Mrs. Decatur Axtell, Mrs. Herber kins. Mrs. Decatur Axtell, Mrs. Herbert Claiborne, Mrs. Allison Hodges, Mrs. Gideon Davenport, Mrs. Adolph Blair, Mrs. Joseph A. White, Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. William Bentley, Mrs. Allison, Mrs. James Patton, Mrs. Warrington Wise, Mrs. Hartley Carmichael, Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Mrs. A. B. Camm, Mrs. John Dunlop, Mrs. John Harrison, Among the guests were Misses Marian Harris, Elsic Cameron, Bessie and Caroline Martin, Nellie Parker, Augusta Daniel, Nene and Leila Myers, Anne Wise Mayo, Delia Tompkins, Liana Mayo, Lucy Wormeley, Marian Robins, Louise Mayo, the Misses Stringfellow, and their guest, Miss White: Misses Flossie Talbott, Lilly and Mary Hill. Annabel Jenkins, Meade Burweil, Hallie Cooke, Rachel Cooke, Lou Adkins, Marie Archer Saunders, Berta Weilford, Annie Leigh, and Gertrude Camm, Ellen Lee, and Mabel Todd, Lise and Clare Blerne, During the evening Mrs. Gibson sang sang, with her usual strace and will.

After Mr. Hawkins's reading at the Academy, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson entertained a number of her friends in his honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moncure Perkins. Mrs. Perkins's handsome home was tastefully decorated for the ochome was tastefully decorated for the de-casion, and the guests present were most delightfully entertained with singing by Mrs. Gibson, Mr Gibson, and Mr. John Craven. Among the guests were Miss Nene Myers, black tulle; Miss Lella Myers, a French costume of gray silk; Miss Bruce Williams, pink silk; Miss Lucy Miss Bruce Williams, pink silk; Miss Lucy Wormeley, white organdy; Mrs. Charles Bolling, pink taffeta and chiffon; Mrs. Thomas Bolling, pink satin and lace; Mrs. Frank Williams, black silk with cerise trimmings; Mrs. Fred Scott, gray silk; Mrs. Allan Donnan, black silk and chiffon with corsage bouquet of violets; Mrs. James Patton; Mrs. John Enders, black satin with gold trimmings; Mrs. William Royall, black satin and chrysanthemums; Mrs. Charles Lathrop, black moire velour Mrs. Charles Lathrop, black moire velour with jet trimmings and bonnet of white satin and jet; Miss Bessie Pace, white brocade and silver trimmings; Miss Anne Tennant, white satin; Miss Annie Leigh Tennant, white satin; Miss Annie Leigh Camm, flowered silk gown; Miss Kate Harris, white and yellow silk; Mrs. Sprague, gray crape; Miss Augusta Daniel, black silk; Mrs. William Sheppard, black silk; Mrs. E. V. Valentine, black brocade. Mrs. Moneure Perkins wore a becoming gown of blue and white taffeta with blue finishings. Mrs. Gibson's coswith blue finishings. Mrs. Gibson's coswith the properties of Mr. and Mrs. William Sare out for the wedding of Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Trinity church summer before last. His properties bride is Miss Lillian Minty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Sare out for the wedding of Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Trinity church summer before last. His properties of Mrs. And Mrs. William Sare out for the wedding of Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Grant Sare out for the wedding of Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Grant Sare out for the wedding of Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Grant Sare out for the wedding of Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Grant Sare out for the wedding of Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Grant Sare out for Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Grant Sare out for Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Grant Sare out for Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit of Holy Grant Sare out for Rev. George Otis Meade, who will be remembered as the able young preach who occupied the pulpit with blue finishings. Mrs. Gibson's cos-tume was the one in which she was preented at the English Court, and made of white satin and renaissance lace.

Miss Evelyn Gordon and Miss Montague have had the enterprise and charitable zeal to arrange a very pleasant enter-tainment for the benefit of the Virginia Hospital, to take place on the 23d. public are cordially invited to attend. The managers of the entertainment have been able to send out some invitations, the limited number of which they very much regret. The invitation is gracefully worded. The pictures promised are to be the drawings of Charles Dana Gibson. Thurlstrup, Alice Barber Stephens, and Menzell, reproduced by groupings of some Urquhart, Miss Bessie Pace, Miss Nena Bass, and several other singers are to furnish the music. The young ladies to assist the hostesses are Misses Annie of the young girls in society. Miss Lily The Art Club held a very enjoyable

The Art Club heid a very enjoyable reception at its rooms Thursday night. The rooms were decorated with violets and yellow chrysanthemums. The first part of the evening was given up to the election of officers, after which Misses Nina Randolph and Carrie Cole-man rendered beautiful selections of guitar and mandolin music. Light re-freshments were served, Mrs. E. V. Valentine presiding at the chocolate pitcher. Miss Adele Williams then read a charming paper on her trip to Holland this ner, which was greatly enjoyed and applauded by her audience. Among the guests and club members present were Misses Amy Werth, Nannie Dunlop, Nine Randolph, Carrie Coleman, Annie Gray, Mary Dunn, Adele and Lulu Wil-Gray, Mary Dunn, Adele and Lida Williams, and Annie Wise Mayo, and Messrs. Edward O. Valentine, W. G. Stanard, Robert Lancaster, William C. Woland, Littleton Fitzgerald, Lightfoot Brooke, George West, Cornelius Hank-ins, and Harry Hazzard. A resolution of thanks was passed animously and with cheers for the delightful entertaniment provided by the Entertain-ment Committee-Mr. W. G. Stanard, Miss Adele Williams, Mrs. William C. Bentley, and Mrs. E. V. Valentine.

Mrs. Frank Isaacs, in honor of her guest, Miss True, of West Islip, L. I., gave two informal but very pleasant enertainments last week. Mrs. Isaacs was at home to her friends about 5 o'clock. Mrs. Pleasandon Conquest presided at the tea-kettle, and some of the guests present were Misses Annie Moore, Mary Elizabeth Moore, Annie Gordon, Mattie Purcell, Susie Weilford, Mrs. John Harrison, Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart, and Miss Ree Watkins. At high tea on Friday, Mrs. Isaacs en-tertained Miss Georgiana Blankenship, Mr. Edward Weilford, and Mr. Charles Stringfellow. The cosey little entertain-ment was one of the most pleasant which has geen given this season.

The meeting of the Cotillon Class on Friday evening was as brilliant an en-tertainment as ever. Mr. Edward Ben-son led the german, and introduced many beautiful figures. Among those present were Misses Bessie and Nannie Duniop, Sadie Sutton, Marie Archer, Estelle De-Saussure, Helen Moseley, Florence Par-ker, Ellen Bagby, Lizzie Weddeli, Nannie Cook, Nina Ambler Smith, Bessie White. Cook, Nina Ambler Smith, Bessie White, Daisy Chamberlayne, Lucy Hayes, Louisa Dabney, Katherine Fontaine, Misses Horsley, Ruth, and Lizzle Robins, Anna Carr, Ellen Robinson, Atkinson, Emmie Marshali, Bertie Nolting, Katie Cox, Blair Harvie; Messrs, Crenshaw Cham-berlayne, Mason White, Thomas Mc-Adams, N. Thomas Marshali, Charles Adams, N. Thomas Marshan, Talbott, Allen Stokes, Stafford Parker, Talbott, Samuel Brokenbrough, Cary Carr, Samuel Brokenbrough, Cary Carr. Samuel Brokenbrough.
Wythe Bolling. Leslie Reed. H. P. Hoen, Venable Johnson, Richard Easley, Van Dyke Johns, Maxey Deitrick, John de Treville, Julian McKenney, Williams Taylor, William and Beverley Harvie, Wiltem Gordon, Adolph Osteloh, Jr., Page

"Ben Bolt," "The Stars Are Shining Bright, My Love," and, by special request, "Ben Bolt" again, accompanied by Mrs. George W. Stevens on the harp. Miss Bessie Pace sang "Kentucky Babe" in her pleasing style, and responded to several encores. Another musician was Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, who rendered the weird chant of "Danny Deever," written by Rudyard Kipling, with much dramatic expression. The gentlemen who came into the tea were Messrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Anthony Hope Hawkins, Rosewell Page, Randolph Holliday, Edward Mayo, Jake Anderson, Allan Taibott, Allen Potts, Hartley Carmichael, Hobson, Henry Baskerville, Rutherford Rose, and John Rutherfoord.

After Mr. Hawkins's roads.

and the vocal music throughout the musicale was masterly in force and finish. The paper on "Music, as Interpreted by Women," which was written by Dr. Russell Pemberton, of Philadelphia, for the ladies' matinee musicale, was, by the ladies' matinee musicale, was, by special request, reread at the musicale in the early part of the evening. The ladies who formed this second audience were, like the first, very much entertained by the information and elegant style of the paper. Mrs. Warren's reading also received its share of admiration. At the reception afterwards there were present several distinguished strangers: Mrs. R. K. Cantley, of Baltistrangers: Mrs. R. K. Cantley, of Balti-more; Miss Gertrude Massie, of West Virginia; Miss Esten Duval, of Lexing-ton Va. Miss Lulls Samusan of Baltiton, Va.; Miss Julia Sampson, of Balti-more; Mrs. Russell Robinson, of Virginia, and Miss Chioe Sams, of Baltimore. The chairman's guests were Mrs. W. S. Si-mons, Mrs. V. C. Pleasants, Miss Swasey, Mrs. C. D. Langhorne, Mrs. J. H. Car-rington, Miss Mary Baughman, Mrs. Malvern C. Patterson, and Mrs. E. V. Williams. The hostesses of the occasion were Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Percy Montague, and Mrs. Lella Montague.

Invitations are out for the wedding

Aspden, of La Grange, Ill.

The engagement of Miss Nannie S. Blair to Mr. John A. Lamb was announced last week, and both young people are receiving many congratulations. Mr. Lamb is one of the most promising young lavyers of Richmond. Miss Blair is the accomplished and popular daughter.

lawyers of Richmond. Miss Blair is the accomplished and popular daughter of Mr. James Blair. The wedding-day is to be the 30th of the month.
Dr. B. Meade Bolton, Professor of Bacteriology at Princeton, and brother of Mr. Jackson Bolton, of this city, was married on Thursday to Miss Laetitia Todd, of Columbia, Mo.

The Thanksgiving german to be given by the Richmond Cotillon Class promises to be a jubilee occasion. As Mr. Adolph Blair will lead the german, it is certain

A whist club, to be named in hono Saunders. The picture-gallery concert and the noted whist player, Professor Fair-reception are to be at the home of Mr. fax, was formed last week. The meet-J. J. Montague, 811 west Franklin street. ings are to take place informally every week at the home of one of the members of the club. The ladies forming the club are Mrs. Charles Doyle, Miss Marie Archer Saunders, Miss Madge Freedley, Mrs. W. S. Forbes, Miss Mary Elizabeth to the Moore, Mrs. Benjamin Nash, Mrs. J. Rid-which dick, and Mrs. W. G. Neal.

Mrs. Garnett, of east Franklin street, last Saturday gave an informal card party to a few friends, which proved to be a delightful social event. Miss Sophie White and Mrs. Mamie McCarty were the Hebes of the occasion, and served punch to the guests. Present were Mrs. Edgar Lafferty, Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Joseph A. White, Mrs. Bailey Saunders, and Mrs. Joseph Smith, of ders, and Mrs. Joseph Smith, of Shreve-port, La. Mrs. Joseph A. White, by her skilful playing, won the prize, a hand-some cut-glass vase, filled with Ameri-can Beauty roses.

The Gounod programme prepared for the meeting of the Ladies' Matinee Musicale on Friday evening, was rendered most successfully by Mrs. Brock, Misses Schoen and Carrington, Miss Zelle Minor, Miss Helen Stockdell, Mrs. Maloney, Miss Lawson, and Miss Bass.

Mr. Merrywether Jones on Saturday gave a coaching party to the Deep Run Hunt Club races in hopor of Miss Virgie Archer. The guests in the party were Miss Annie Leigh Camm; Miss Cogbiil, of New York; Miss Mary Cameron, and Mr. John Young, Mr. William Armistead Townes, and Mr. William Tompkins.

Misses Ruby and Pearl Bodeker, with number of other prominent ladies of Church Hill, have arranged to give a dinner to the poor of the East End Thanksgiving evening. The dinner will take place at 3 o'clock in the Masonic Hall, on Franklin street, between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets, with singing and other amusements.

Mrs. Gervas Storrs and Mrs. Ruffin, who have in charge the next entertainment at the Retreat, have planned a mystery entertainment.

The Whist Players' Club met on Thursday at the home of Miss Bernard Harvie, and spent a most enjoyable eve-Miss Bettle Burwell Booker, it is rumored, is to give a recital in Washington, shortly.

meeting of the Colonial Dames, was unanimously elected president of the Richmond Chapter, and Mrs. Charles Coleman and Mrs. Matt. Pleasants, first and second vice-presidents, respectively. Miss Lizzie Kennan, of Powhatan county, who, for several winters has been very popular in Richmond, is very ill with fever in New York. Captain Joseph Hobson, Mr. Alexander Hobson, and Mr. Frank Michaux left the city on Saturday for a several days' hunt in Buckingham. While away they will stay at the home of Mr. E. T. Page, of that county.

Mrs. J. Ravencraft Burwell will spend the winter at Sanford. Fis. Mr. Isaac Cohen returned on Tuesday from a trip to New York.

Mr. Walter C. Rosser, a very popular young Richmond man, has left the city to make his home in Clifton Forge. Mr. E. T. Page, who has recently reigham, left on Thursday for a southern is visiting Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss. Mrs. Joseph Smith is at the house of Mrs. Duval, east Franklin street.

FINNISCIN.

EAMERICANIC

Miss Mary Rogers returned last week from her visit to Fredericksburg, and is visiting Miss Emily Knox, Fourth street. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harris and the Misses Harris will return from the Horse

Mr. Elmore Hotchkiss, Jr., returned last week from a visit to Washington, with his health entirely restored.

Show, early this week.

Mrs. Clement Manly, of North Caro-

Mrs. Virginia Hobson is visiting her nephew, Mr. George Fisher, on Main Miss Amy Bay, of St. Louis, Mo., will spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs.

Decatur Axtell. Miss Nellie Ryder, of Charlotte, N. C., is visiting Miss Bessie Pace. Next week Miss Pace will also entertain Miss Ada

Miss Pace will also entertain Miss Add Page, of the University.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson sailed on Saturday for Egypt.

Mrs. Robert Shaw on Thursday and Friday chaperoned a box party at the New York Horse Show. Among her guests were Miss Helen Christian and Miss Phyllis Langhorne.

Miss Deitrick, of Lorraine, Va., is the guest of Miss Hattle Tyler.

Dr. Joseph White last week entertained a number of his friends at a card party. Refreshments were served during the evening, and the whole entertainment made so exceedingly pleasant by the host and hostess that the guests were unable to leave until a late hour.

Next Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Mrs. Richard Kingman Cantley will give a talk before the Woman's Club on "Souvenirs of Travel," which will be followed by an informal reception to Mrs. Cantley.

The convention of the Daughters of the Revolution has been postponed till the first week in January.

Miss Helen B. Elerman, whose beauty and accomplishments have made her a social favorite in Birmingham, is visiting her relative, Mrs. Richard M. Taylor, her relative, Mrs. Richard M. Taylor, Miss Elerman will also visit Miss Youngblood, of Washington, and then will complete her studies in music and art in New Mrs. James I. Pritchett and Miss Hick-son, of Danville, Va., and Mrs. Thomas H. Martin, of Durham, N. C., are visiting their sister, Mrs. William Ashby Jones. A party from Baltimore, consisting of es Josephine Hunter, Minne Whitman, Ella Slinger Messrs, Lewis Tabb, Frank and Horace Whitman, are also to be in Richmond for the holidays. Miss Anderson, of Nottoway, is visit-ing Miss Crump, No. 301 south Fourth

Mrs. Moses Thalhimer will leave short-ly for a visit to her mother, Mrs. Bam-berger, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Sprague, of California, who has been staying at the Jefferson for some time, will leave this week for her home, Robins will leave on the 26th for a visit to Mrs. Brent, of Alexandria.

Mrs. Mary E. Quaries will spend the winter in Chicago, preparatory to leaving Richmond. Mrs. Quaries and Miss Louise

Miss Carrie Minor, sister of Judge Edward Minor, is spending the winter in Florida.

Mrs. Edmund Harrison and Mrs. Charles H. Chaikley, of Hopkinsville, Ky., are the guests of Mrs. Howard Hoge, Frank-

Miss Elle Maury Werth, one of the most lin to Arringdale, Southampton county. prominent young ladies in Richmond so-ciety, returned on Wednesday from Fredericksburg, where she went to attend the wedding of Miss Wallace and Mr. Em-west Grace street.

Miss Annabel Jenkins will leave shortly for New York and Newark, N. J.

Among last week's visitors to the city

Miss Susie Harrison, of Church Hill, has been spending the last week with Miss Amy McCrae Werth, and has won many friends in this part of Richmond.

Mrs. Mattie Paul Myers has taken for the winter the house recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Alston Cabell.

Dr. Milton Smith, of Shreveport, La., Accept no substitute. the winter the house recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Alston Cabell.

Miss Mary Price, of New York, is staying with Miss Lottle Bruce, on Third street. Mrs. Robert Hamilton, of Petersburg

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Thomason have returned from their bridal tour.

who has been visiting her sister, Mis-Berta Wellford, returned to her home on Thursday.

Miss Sara Lewis, of Sweet Springs, W. Va., is the guest of Mrs. Houston, east Main street. Miss Mildred Garnett is visiting Mrs.

Dr. Manson, west Grace street.

Miss Carrie Talbott returned on Wednesday from her visit to Miss Sady Hob-

Miss Julia Budd, of Petersburg, is the guest of Miss Helen McIntyre. Mr. Robert Baker, of the University, will be a guest at the same house.

Miss Annie Gordon, of Petersburg, will this week visit Miss Susie Harrison, No. 2314 east Broad street.

Dr. William Dame, of Memorial church, HOSIERY, Baltimore, last week visited Rev. Landon R. Mason and delivered a delightful lecture on the events of the civil war.

Miss Sophie Hatze, a very accomplished and entertaining lady of New York, will this week visit Miss Mabel Todd. Mr. Barton Haxall Cameron will spend

Mrs. Cohen expects next week to giv a euchre party to a few friends.

Mrs. J. C.-Bodow's friends in Richmon will be glad to hear that Captain Bodow has recovered from his recent illness.

Miss Mary Minor Cooke, of King William county, is the guest of her friend, Miss Sue D. Herring, of No. 2104 east

Grace street. SUFFOLK.

A Pleasant Entertainment-Thanksgiving-Day-Briefs.

SUFFOLK, VA., November 20.-(Special.)-A most recherche social entertainment took place last night at the residence of Hon. and Mrs. John B. Pinner, on Brooklyn Heights. It was known as a "birthday tea," and each guest was re-"birthday teal and each genny for each year of his or her age, the proceeds being for the benefit of the Presbyterian church. It was a very "swell" affair, evening dress being the rule. Highly creditable literary and musical exercises took place during the first part of the evening, after which seasonable refreshnents were served in excellent style

Rev. Joseph B. Dunn, the new rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church, arrived here last Wednesday night from arrived here last Wednesday night from Rocky Mount, Va., accompanied by his family. They were met at the depot by a reception committee with carriages, and the whole party drove at once to the rectory, on north Main street, where a number of the ladies of the church were in waiting, with an elegant supper for the new rector and his family. Mr. Dunn will fill his pulpit to-morrow at the usual will fill his pulpit to-morrow at the usual hours, and will doubtless attract large congregations.

time, will leave this week for her home, in New Orleans.

Mr. Beverley E. Shore left on Saturday for a visit to his parents, in Burkeville.

Miss Mary Lyons Mayo and Miss Marian Mr. Beverley E. Shore left on Saturday, for a visit to his parents, in Burkeville.

Miss Mary Lyons Mayo and Miss Marian
Miss Mary Lyons Mayo and Miss Marian
in the exercises. A collection will be taken for the poor, and distributed taken the various churches. The day will be observed as a holiday by majority of our merchants, who

Mrs. Mary E. Quaries will spend the winter in Chicago, preparatory to leaving Richmond. Mrs. Quaries and Miss Louise Quaries expect to visit Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hawes.

Mrs. C. V. Carrington and Mrs. B. Stewart Hume returned on Saturday from New York.

Mrs. C. V. Carrington and Mrs. B. Stewart Hume returned on Saturday from New York.

Miss Bessie Lee, of Hanover, is visiting her sister, Miss Anne Lee, 319 east Frank-in street.

Miss Louise Waldour, of Hanover, is the guest of Miss Robbie Minor, east Leigh street.

Crittenden Methods Capturing P. M.

Miss Elise Urquhart, daughter of Captain M. Urquhart, left here yesterday for Radford, Va., to take a position as music teacher in a school. Miss Urquhart is one of Suffolk's most talented and charming young ladies, and is an accomplished elocutionist, as well as a proficient musician.

Leigh street.

Miss Emily Stearns, of Culpeper, is the guest of Miss Roxie Wilkinson, of Church

Mrs. W. H. Stewart, of Baltimore, has been visiting her mother. Mrs. Jesse Parker, of Suffolk, for the past week

Mrs. Robert W. Ashburn, of Staten Island, N. Y., is visiting relatives in Suffolk.

Mrs. S. P. Swords, of Alexandria, is phia for the past week, Visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. S. R. Dunn, formerly of Richter, Mrs. S. R. Dunn, Miss Louise Piosson, of Church Hill, accompanied of Richmond, members of the capital city's delegation to the Horse Show of the metropolis.

Mr. Alphonso Royster killed a large bear in the Dismai Swamp last Wednesday, since which time our epicures hear in the Dismai Swamp has vec-nesday, since which time our epicures have been enjoying bear steak. Mr. W. N. McAuge, of Suffalk, is es-tablishing a telephone line from Frank-

> GENERAL CLAY'S GIRL WIFE. She Has Left Him, But Says She May

Miss Gulie Harrison arrived in the city VALLEY VIEW, KY., November 20.— iast week to visit Miss Alice Archer, of General Cassius Marcellus Clay's child-wife has not returned to him, and last night that remarkable man of 87 years, surrounded by guards, was in "White-

Among last week's visitors to the city was a Philadelphia yachting party, composed of Mrs. L. D. Felin, wife of the distinguished naval officer; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cox Mr. Robert McCarter, Dr. Robert La Conte, Mr. George Brook, Mr. Willing Ware, and Mr. A. Van Rensalaer.

Miss Susan Braxton, of Newport News, will this week visit Miss Agnes Holladay McCarthy. period to my visiting any of my relatives. He gave me everything I wanted, and has sent me a lot of money twice since I left. When he came home from Cincinnati he brought me a guitar, a whole lot of candy and bananas, and many nice

Our buyers are shipping us daily from New York and other cities-where the choicest goods for the least money are btainable. We will show on

> GRAND SPECIAL VALUES

CAPES, FURS,

Monday many

DOMESTICS. WAISTS. WRAPPERS

MATTINGS, RUGS. FANCY GOODS.

103 E. BROAD ST., NEXT COR. FIRST things. But I don't love him any m He would always let me go to visit my reighbors, but he sent a man along with me to see that none of his relatives tried

Mr. Clay is almost beside himself. He has sent her notes, and old John Bigget-staff, his neighbor, has pleaded with her. He has promised her grand balls and great social functions if she will return. I called at "Whitehall" early yesterday morning, and General Clay pointed his rifle at me and said:

"Leave, or I'll shoot you dead."

Another man also pointed a rifle, and retreat was the only course open. "Whitehall," the $60,000 mansion of General Clay, the old abolitionist, duelly, soldier, and War Minister to Russia, about two miles from the post-office. was built while he was Minister to Rus sia, and is one of the largest residences in Kentucky. He owned nearly two thou sand acres of the finest land in Madison county, but divided it among his chi The marriage of the "Sage of White occurred December 13, 1894. Dora Ric ardson, her mother, and little brother, about two years before the wedding, were caught in the railroad bridge which spans the Kentucky river at Valley View by the Kentucky river at Valley View by a train. Dora pushed her brother off the track and clung to the trestle and saved herself. Her mother was killed. Her heroism touched General Clay, and he determined to give her a home. John Biggerstaff, General Clay's neighbor, said to me yesterday;

"General Clay is a man of fine mind, but he is living in fear of enemies. He be-lieves plots are being laid to assassinate him, and he has so fortified himself that it would be impossible for a regiment of soldiers to take him.

"He has a system of electric bells by which he communicates with his guards. who live in smaller houses in the yard "Mr. Clay loves that strip of a girl dearly, and since he married her has simply lavished his money upon her and her kinspeople. He told me a few days ago she had cost him more than $15,000, the greater portion of it spent for mere trifles. He believes the cold weather will bring her back."

SICK

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price (Th. Sa. Tu. & W)

BOOK AND JOB WORK

NEATLY EXECUTED

AT INS

DISPATCH PRINTING OFFICE